“ Ho avuto il piacere di conoscere Marguerite durante la mia visita a Geneva, la ricordo come una persona allegra ed enegica. Mando un grande abbraccio alle mie cugine che oggi piangono per la scomparsa della loro madre.

“ Rest in peace Aunt Marguerite. Although my Aunt was slight in frame, she demonstrated a strength, insight and determination equal to King David. In my early years, we commuted to FLCC everyday and shared many insightful conversations. Her faith in Jesus was the rock she stood upon. Say hello to our family in heaven. Bill

“ For many years Marguerite and I worked together at both St. Francis/St. Stephens and also at West Street School. I was a young man then, a school psychologist just starting out. Marguerite was my go to person, always smiling and always so helpful. She had energy pointing me here and pointing me there knowing my time was limited and most importantly knowing we had children to service and help. The children and their need to learn as in our case we worked with the ones who needed to catch up. I looked forward to seeing Marg and working with her because she knew the kids, their families and was so focused on their care. She and I had a sort of bond, maybe our Italian heritage, and while it has been years since I have seen her, she is a stand out when I think of my life in Geneva and my work in the schools. Bless her.
