She was the daughter of the late Douglas and Kathryn Casey McCluskie. Mina worked at the Finger Lakes Times for many years as a proof reader and later worked at J. W. Smith Dry Goods Store. She loved music and singing and was active in various choirs in the area throughout the years, both in church and in the community. She loved socializing with her friends and belonged to the Geneva Women's Club for many years. She loved her grandchildren and they loved her back. She was a member of Our Lady of Peace parish and was a member of the Rosary Society, the Catholic Daughter of America where she was a past grand regent and a member of the Legion of Mary. She is survived by her daughters: Kathleen (James) Cotriss of San Jose, CA and Sheila (Newcomb) Albers of Canandaigua, NY. Four Grandchildren: Robert Newcomb of Geneva, Bethany (Newcomb) Wishart of Arvada, CO, Donald Cotriss of San Jose, CA, and David Cotriss of Hollywood CA and Nine great grandchildren. She was predeceased by her husband: Wilbert H. Albers who passed away on July 26, 1993.

Comments

“ Dear Kathy and Sheila,

I am so sorry to hear about your mom. She was a kind and loving person and such a big part of my life especially through our highschool years. She always made me feel welcome in your home.

I'm sorry for your loss.
